THE EUROPEAN POWERS, Martin Gilbert

An account of the forty-five years, from 1900 to 1945, which climaxed in the eclipse of the major European powers. Spot-lighting the years between the two world wars, the author presents a brilliant analysis of the events which redrew the map of Europe. Hardbound, H0055, $5.95

A GUIDE TO THE SOCIAL SCIENCES, Norman Mackenzie

A general introduction to the social sciences by a group of distinguished specialists. Frank Lipset, James McGregor Burns, Richard Hoggart, Asa Briggs and others explain in lay language each science as well as the interrelationships of the disciplines. Hardbound, H0138, $6.50

A HISTORY OF POSTWAR RUSSIA, R. W. Pethybridge

Charts the course of Soviet domestic and foreign affairs during sixteen crucial years — from the closing stages of the Second World War through the Twenty-second Soviet Party Congress of 1961. Hardbound, H0051, $5.95.

INTRODUCTION TO AFRICAN ART, Boris de Rachewiltz

A comprehensive look at the art of Africa in its historical and religious context and a discussion of its possible future lines of development. Eight full-color plates and eighty-seven black-and-white photographs. Hardbound, H0086, $7.50

POWER IN AMERICA, David Bazelon

A brilliant analysis of the "new class" — a coalition of newly affluent, college-educated, managerial and professional groups — which is restructuring American political power, leading to greater development of America's untapped potential. Hardbound, H0122, $7.50

PROFILES IN POWER: A Washington Insight, Joseph Kraft

An original analysis of our national political system, portraying such people as Lyndon B. Johnson, J. Edgar Hoover, and McGeorge Bundy, while showing the impact on Washington of such diverse institutions as the Press, the Establishment, and the Intellectuals. Hardbound, H0082, $4.95

RADICAL IMAGINATION, Irving Howe

An anthology from Dissent Magazine dealing primarily with the America of the troubled Sixties but also in-depth analysis of world problems. Vietnam, intellectual currents behind the Iron Curtain, Leftism, Harlem, and the crisis in urban education are a few topics incisively examined. (June) Hardbound, H0147, $7.95

THE ROOTS OF APPEASEMENT, Martin Gilbert

Using the theme of Winston Churchill's words "Appeasement from weakness and fear is alike futile and fatal. Appeasement from strength is magnanimous and noble," Gilbert traces the rise of the noble concept of appeasement and how it was lead astray. A critical appraisal of British policy towards Germany from 1914-1939. Hardbound, H0140, $5.95

RUSSIA IN REVOLUTION, 1890-1918, Lionel Kochan

A study of the sources of tension in Russian society that grew from sporadic clashes to open civil war, sounding the swan song of the Tsarist empire and heralding the emergence of the Soviet Union. Hardbound, H0131, $6.95

A SACRED TRUST, Richard Harris

The astonishing story behind America's most influential lobby — the American Medical Association — and its forty-five year fight against public health legislation. Hardbound, H0133, $5.00
